I Anniversary War Song,

BY CAPT. H. L. WEBB.

FOR YE the battle cry,
Forward to the fight!
Hail now the heroes high,
For God and the right;
Bear ye the message far,
Our land to save;
Those who in bondage are,
Now may be free.

CHORUS.

Glory to Jesus, victory shall come!
The Saviors on our side,
And we are marching home.

Thousands of fallen ones,

Powerless to rise;

Daily appeal to us;

To help them to the skies.

Shine on through,

See them sinking down,

When we could help them,

To win a golden crown?

Worldlings may laugh at us,

Philistines may stare—

All earth and hell oppose;

But what do we care?

Look on in our pride,

Keep your golden crown.

Light shining from the Crown,

Points to the Crown.

Fight yet, a little while;

Though it's hard and rough,

Jesus will on you smile.

And give you strength enough,

Then when you're done, c'm'

There's a great reward.

For those who faithful were,

When the fight was hard.

(Music in preparation).

NOTICE!

Western and Eastern Division Reports are crowded out this week, owing to the want of space.

2 Anniversary Loyalty Song

BY CAPT. TOM LEAVITT.

TUNE—"We'll all about Hallelujah."

We'll fight beneath our flag,
And we'll never let colors drag
Where stains of sin shall blot the red and blue;
We to Jesus, will be true,
And I'm sure He'll be through,
If we fight and die, but never run away.

CHORUS.

On to victory we are marching,
Waging war against the foe;
And our flag unfurled shall be,
And poor upstarts be set free;
Asia spread a field salvation, forth we go.

To the Lord we will be true,

We will strive God's will to do.

And with hearts on fire with love, we'll

For great battles have been fought;

And great wonders have been wrought,

All beneath the flag of yellow, red and blue.

Come and join our ranks to-day,

Make a break for liberty,

And the world will be master, get away;

And those who stand by, With the Savior you shall be,

If you die beneath the yellow, red and blue.

3 Anniversary Farewell Song.

WHO'LL VOLUNTEER?

JAMES LUMHOLZ, PARSON FALLS.

TUNE—"Who'll be the man?"

WHO'LL volunteer to fight for Jesus?
To rescue the dying from the grave?
Who'll do their best to tell every sinner,
That Jesus died their souls to save?

CHORUS.

Who'll volunteer to help us? Are you up?
Who'll help us? And give themselves to Jesus,
To save them are they die.
The Savior's voice is calling, Oh, who will work to day,
He'll smile and open you, Oh, trust me and obey.

CHORUS.

Who'll volunteer to fight for Jesus?
The drunkard and harlot to rebuke?
Who'll do their best to try and lead them,
From the paths of sin and shame?

Who'll volunteer to fight for Jesus?
Fight in garret, street and lane?
Who'll spread the news of a full sal-

CHORUS.

Who'll volunteer to fight for Jesus?
Those friends and companions on you turn cold?

Who'll give up all to follow the Master,
Come and be a soldier bold?

Who'll volunteer to fight for Jesus?

There's a crown awaiting you,
Who'll say "Jesus I am ready,
Make me holy, good and true?"

4 Easter Invitation Song.

A. M. B., TARBOTON.

TUNE—"Oh! the roses to see at Easter.

ONCE—Was pale and full of sin,
And filled with dark despair;
I sought both peace and joy,
But could not always.

CHORUS.

Oh! fit the voice, etc.
I head of Jesus' lovely birth,
His shame and agony,
And how He came from heaven to earth,
To heal and die for me.

My heart was filled with love for Him,
When I first lay beside,
And now I find a peace within,
Through every heart and page of the dear old War Cry.

CHORUS.

7

7 Anniversary Encouragement Song.

STAFF-OFFICER, BAKER.

TUNE—"Sleeping through the gates of the New Jerusalem."

NORTH to the war in Jesus name we go,
Marching to victory over every foe,
Jesus no future can know,
Oward to conquer for God.

CHORUS.

Marching to war, in the Savior's name,
Oward to victory through the blood;
Bring the lost to Jesus, who came the last to save,

On with the fire and the blood.

ARTHUR to war, God will our strength supply.

What in the fight He will be ever nigh,
We're the blood-stained banner high,
Oward to conquer for God.

FORTH to the war, a crown awaits the brave,
Jesus' banner flies, the world will give,
Jesus died the world to save,
Oward to conquer for God.

ARTHUR to the war until the battle's won,
Satan is vanquished and his power is thrown,
Jesus Christ is Lord alone,
Oward to conquer for God.
